

2008 Iditarod Self Start Math Problems Week 2 Day #1

1. If each team has sixteen dogs and there are sixty-four teams, how many dogs will leave Anchorage?

2. Doug has a team of sixteen dogs. Eight of the dogs have blue eyes, two have yellow eyes, two have brown eyes and four have black eyes. Draw a circle graph to show the percentage of eye colors.

2008 Iditarod Self Start Sentences

Rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. it was the three veterinarians decision to shipped the dog's back to anchorage

---

---

2. wow the northern lights is glorious in the sky last night

---

---

2008 Iditarod Self Start Math Problems Week 2 Day #2

1. Charlie and Don have one hundred thirty-six dogs combined in their separate dog lots. Don has twelve more than Charlie in his lot. How many dogs do they each have in their dog lots?

2. Carole buys seventeen big bags of dog food. She can only fit two bags into each grocery bag. How many grocery bags will she need?

2008 Iditarod Self Start Sentences

Rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. the swirling snow ice and winds caused the musher to be un able to sea

---

---

2. the tallest mountain in north america is called denali

---

---

2008 Iditarod Self Start Math Problems Week 2 Day #3

1. Finney is standing in line to board the airplane headed to Anchorage. There are thirty-six people in front of her. There are thirty-eight people behind her.

What is Finney's position in line? _____

How many people are standing in line? _____

2. You have two pairs of long underwear pants and three different shirts. How many different outfits can you make? Draw a diagram.

2008 Iditarod Self Start Sentences

Rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. a incredible new book about huskys and mushing is called born to pull

---

---

2. walt disney made a movie from the book balto but we shouldnt overlook the importance of togo

---

---

2008 Iditarod Self Start Math Problems Week 2 Day #4

1. There are seven black huskies, four white huskies, and five gray huskies.

What fraction of the team of huskies is gray? _____

What fraction of the team is black? _____

What fraction of the team is white? _____

2. Samantha has thirty-two huskies. She buys twelve more from another musher. She gives two dogs to each of her five friends.

How many dogs does Samantha have now? _____

2008 Iditarod Self Start Sentences

Rewrite each sentence correctly.

1. the ending of the book stone fox illustrates the life skills of perseverance effort caring and friendship

---

---

2 i wonder what would have happen if martin had finished the race in daylight

---

---

Self Start Quiz
2008 Iditarod Math - Week #2

1. If each team has sixteen dogs and there are sixty-four teams, how many dogs will leave Anchorage?

2. Charlie and Don have one hundred thirty-six dogs combined in their separate dog lots. Don has twelve more than Charlie in his lot. How many dogs do they each have in their dog lots?

Self Start Quiz 2008 Iditarod Language - Week #2
Rewrite each sentence correctly on the lines.

1. the tallest mountain in north america is called denali

---

---

2. the ending of the book stone fox illustrates the life skills of perseverance effort caring and friendship

---

---

---